

Brighter Future Development Trust
Brighter Future's
College & VTC Students Get Together Celebration
15th December, 2018

It is the time of picnics and get-togethers. Brighter Future organized a Get together party for all college students on the eve of New Year. Students from Rainbow Children home, Prem Nivas and Shanti Nivas, all together 34 children with Director and Mrs. Director and staff also attended the party.

The get together was arranged at Shanti Nivas Campus, the main motto of the get together was for the interaction with one another and enjoyment. Girls cut the vegetables and arrange the materials and veggies for the cooking of dinner. Boys took the duty of arranging the campfire, lighting and gathered wood for cooking the dinner. Before the sun disappears at the horizon all set for the party.

Brighter Future Development Trust

Simultaneously the cooking was going on boys arranged the sitting arrangement for the party and also arranged the music system and girls cooked the food for dinner with Mrs. Director. They cooked Chicken Dum Biryani, white rice, Dal, Mix vegetable Curry and Onion Tomato Raita.

The party started with a prayer to lord, after that Director welcomed all the children from all homes and gave small motivational speech to the college students. After that two senior boys and girls lighted the Camp Fire and the party started the event hosted by a senior girl. All students gave their self introductions with their hobbies and their ambition, later on all the students enjoyed by different games and activities like singing boys and girls group they had singing competition and Antakshari, boys and girls performed dances on different songs on stage also had a dialogues competition and Mono acting.

Brighter Future Development Trust

All students, Director, Mrs. Director and staff cut the cake, after that all had dinner together.

It's a sweet memory in the lives of the children along with Brighter Future they had a beautiful time spent with friends had a journey and they are going ahead. We all wish them a successful and joy full New Year ahead.

Happy New Year...

2018